

FOLKS Demonstration Landscape

FOLKS received funding for a demonstration landscape that includes a driveway designed to reduce runoff that could cause siltation, excess algae growth and other lake problems. FOLKS installed a mix of non-pervious driveway surrounded by a pervious concrete with openings that easily accept rainfall and runoff from the drive.

Beneath the pervious concrete are french drains, or porous pipes that provide drip irrigation for landscape during drought periods.

